

SHREWSBURY MASTERS SC
DATA PROTECTION & PRIVACY POLICY
May 2018

Introduction to GDPR – General Data Protection Regulation

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which came into effect on 25th May 2018, describes how organisations such as Shrewsbury Masters must collect, handle and store personal information.

These rules apply regardless of whether data is stored electronically or on paper.

To comply with the GDPR, personal information must be collected and used fairly, stored safely and not disclosed unlawfully.

The GDPR is underpinned by eight important principles. These say that personal data must:

- be processed fairly and lawfully;
- be obtained only for specific, lawful purposes;
- be adequate, relevant and not excessive;
- be accurate and up to date;
- not kept for longer than necessary;
- be processed in accordance with the rights of the “Data Subjects”;
- be kept and held securely;
- not be transferred to third parties or other countries without consent.

Further details on the GDPR can be found at the website for the Information Commissioner’s Office (www.ico.gov.uk).
